VAILS WINS THE DELAWARE

SANFORD'S SPEEDY FILLY RUNS THE MILE IN 1:38 AT SARATOGA.

Fourth Time in Seven Years that This Handicap Has Been Won by Horses from the Hurricana Stud.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 13 .- The feature of the card today was the seventh running of the Delaware Handicap at one mile, in which John Sanford's three-year-old filly, Vails, by Gonsalvo-Retaliation, achieved a remarkable victory and established herself as one of the very best of her sex and age in this country. On the strength of her victory at three-quarters of a mile last Friday, her first start this year, and from the fact that she was carrying thirteen pounds less than her weight as against Running Water's pound off, she was backed as the favorite with the Newcastle Stable's filly ranking second in the choice of the public. Sir Lynnewood, Cairngorm and Ben Ban found some following, but the others were neglected. The handling of Vails was intrusted to the lightweight Beckman and he rode her well. He got her away on even terms with Gardner and must have been the first to per eive that the Sullivan horse had improved suddenly and most unexpectedly, for he urged the filly to the front in the first few strides and kept her up and at it for the entire mile, to win in the fast time of 1:38 by a nose from Dr. Gardner, he a nose in front of Sir Lynnewood, which might have wo in another stride, for he was going like the wind after having come from far back. It was a rip snorting race between Vails and Dr. Gardner, and the prowess of the filly is further strengthened by the fact that she was in receipt of only four pounds by the scale from this son of Bannockburn which is when at his best one of the fastest milers in America.

This is the fourth time in the seven years of the race that a Sanford horse has won. The wonder ful Chuctanunda won it as a four-year-old in 1902, running the mile in 1:38, the record for the race, which Vails equalled today. Molly Brant won it in 1904 and again in 1905, the first time in 1:393 with 112 pounds and the second time in 1:39% with

The sport began with an upset for the talent Royal Lady, from the Sullivan barn and mounted by Miller, was backed at odds-on, but the best she ould do was third to Belle of Iroquois and Anna May, the former at 20 and the latter at 10 to 1. It appeared for an instant in the stretch as if Royal Lady would win, but she tired suddenly and could not withstand the rush of the other two..

For the handicap at a mile, which came second n the eard, Clare Russell, True Boy and Don Hamilton carried the money of the public, but they were not among the placed horses. D'Arkle, smoth ering Fancy Bird and Poquessing in the stretch drive, won at 8 to 1.

Big Chief was the one the talent chose from the field of seventeen to support for the third race and he lasted just long enough, after leading all the to win by a head from the fast coming Polly Watts. Big Chief and Vails were the life savers for the talent. All Alone beat Single Stone every foot of the route in the fifth and Easton, receding in the betting to the favor of Sam Bernard, took the last race.

At the request of a number of owners the water jump in the steeplechase course has been lowered by taking out the loose brush, leaving only the growing hedge. Few of the horses took this fence well, though having no trouble to get over the other jumps. The ditch on the take-off side is very wide and the brush was so high that a horse could not see the water and gauge his leap accordingly. There is much interest in the work of John M. P. distinguished steeplechaser, which crossed the ocean three times in twelve months, is going along nicely here. His trainer is making every effort to get him ready for the Great Autumn John M. P. is in a race he won last year. excellent condition and it is predicted that he will race better this year than last. He may get a race or two here as a part of his preparation fo the big Sheepshead Bay event.

It is not believed now that any serious result will follow the injury Notasulga received a few days ago by picking up a nail. She is ready to gallop and her owner expects to start her here before the meeting ends. She is eligible for a great many of the rich autumn stakes.

The dispute as to who was entitled to first call on E. Dugan, now that Durnell has no use for his services until his apprentice time expires in September, has been settled by the stewards in favor of R. T. Wilson, Jr.

yearlings from Hamburg Place to be sold here Thursday are a good-looking lot and have been inspected by many prospective buyers.

NO BETTING AT LEWISBURG.

Covington, Ky., August 13.-According to Sheriff Davidson, the effort to open a poolroom at Lewis-burg, a suburb of this city, is going to be a failure. The sheriff says he will not permit the operation of a poolroom in Lewisburg, nor anywhere else in He says he does not want to use force in closing the poolroom at Lewisburg, and that he had so informed those intrested in it, but if it becomes necessary, he says he will raid the place and break up the paraphernalia.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE GRAND UNION HOTEL STAKES.

The Grand Union Hotel Stakes is justly esteemed one of the leading events of the Saratoga meeting and is named after one of the fashionable hotels of the popular resort. It is one of the series of stake established in 1901 and has usually been won by a subsequently good racehorse, Highball, winner of the last American Derby, being a case in point. Apparently a cracking good race will mark its seventh run ning this afternoon and its record to date is as follows.

CHARLIE EASTMAN'S EASY VICTORY. ARCADIA IS TO SUPPLANT ASCOT.

Gardner's Himyar Gelding Takes the Star Number at Fort Erie.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 13 .- An average card of races furnished entertainment for the patrons of the Fort Erie track today. The fourth race at three-quarters of a mile served as a feature and was easily by the speedy Charlie Eastman, the favorite, from Frontenac, with The Belle third.

The recent decision of the club to give no purse less than $400 is beginning to demonstrate its bettering influence upon racing at this center and while only six races now comprise an afternoon's card, a much better class of horses is attracted and naturally the public is afforded safer means of

It is now said that Denham is suffering from pneumonia and that his recovery is doubtful.

The Pasadena Stable has purchased Dele Strom and Bellmence from L. A. Cella. The price for the two was $2,000.

D. Buford is now the owner of the two-year-old Kitty Smith. He bought her from J. W. Pangle

L. A. Cella has taken a contract on jockey V. Powers, who has improved much in his riding.

Seven horses belonging to Joseph James arrived at Erie from Windsor yesterday afternoon.

Jockey Aubuchon is the latest addition to the riding ranks. He came in from Denver Monday. Awawegang and Miss Galety struck themselves in

TARAL FAVORS STANDING START.

In Austria-Hungary, where Fred Taral, the noted American jockey has been riding for the past seven years of his quarter of a century in the saddle, the standing start is in vogue. During a recent discussion of the respective merits of the standing and walk-up systems of starting, Taral said that the alert jockey has a tremendous advantage over his slower as he is away and takes opponents, a good position before they have their mounts fairly in motion, and they are then compelled to lay in behind or go to the outside. In short races the sluggish horse or slow beginner has no chance whatever against a fast breaker, while with the walk ing-up system they are all in motion and consequently their chances are more equal.

the walking-up system there is also very little chance of a horse being left at the post, while with the standing start a horse is liable to swerve around at the last moment, thereby losing o much ground that he may as well have been left. When a slow beginner has an inside start number, he is placed at an immense disadvantage, as the quick starters will move over to the rail and he is safely pocketed for the rest of the

"I would prefer to ride always with the flat-footed start," said Taral, "as I know that I have said Taral, "as I know that I have tal to carry out all plans. a decided advantage over a good many riders who are slow to get their mounts in motion. To get beginning of activities in that regard, the promoter away well a horse must be kept continually on his toes and this is very difficult to accomplish under the flat-footed system.'

THIRTY LEADING OWNERS

James R. Keene's horses have earned for him in seventeen weeks over a quarter of a million dollars a record unprecedented on the American turf. Nearly fourteen weeks of the eastern season remain with many rich prizes yet to be taken. It should not be surprising if the horses in this stable win another $100,000 or more before they go into winter quarters, about November 15. The thirty owners quarters, about November 15. George Rose and Others Will Build the Track at Baldwin's Ranch.

The latest news of the racing situation in Los Angeles is that it has been decided by the chief spirits in the Los Angeles Jockey Club that there is too much uncertainty about a favorable decision from the higher court on the annexation question to lay plans for a meeting at Ascot Park next winter; that it has further been decided to organize a new jockey club, build the proposed track at Arcadia and open the winter meeting there Thanksgiving Day. The Los Angeles Evening News tells the story as follows:

"Arcadia is to have a race track after all, and work will begin next week at completing the unfinished work already started at building the track 'Lucky' Baldwin's ranch. George Rose has been cabled to return from his European trip once and he probably is now crossing the Atlantic. The new jockey club, practically, will be a reor ganization of the Los Angeles Jockey Club to the extent that several members of the latter will be associated in the Arcadia racing enterprise.

"One of those who is deeply interested in the Arcadia proposition and who is acting as spokesman for his associates, visited the Baldwin ranch Thursday and says that it is an ideal location for ; race track and that transportation facilities will be arranged for most satisfactorily. A temporary grandstand probably, will be built to enable the new jockey club to hold its winter meeting, but all other buildings will be of permanent construction and at the close of the next winter racing season a permanent grandstand will be erected.

"Organization of the new jockey club will be de-layed about ten days or two weeks, until all those interested can arrive in Los Angeles, but this will not delay work, as Baldwin is arranging to put teams at work next week to finish track building operations. While the spokesman for the proposed new jockey club would not say positively Barney Schreiber would be associated with the new organization, he intimated that such would be the case and that a majority of those who now are members of the Los Angeles Jockey Club would be associated in the Arcadia enterprise.

"George Rose has been in Europe for several weeks, taking a vacation, and the embarrassing situation regarding Ascot has been cabled to him. He also has been cabled to return to America at as there is no time to be lost in arranging for the winter meeting that will take the dates that Ascot expected to fill. Rose will have associated with him a few wealthy eastern friends and will be the leading spirit in the new organization, as he is at Ascot. There will be no peddling of stock, as all the issue will be taken by those who now are interested in the enterprise. There cannot be any financial difficulties for the new jockey club, as the members command ample capiof the Arcadia meeting for next winter will have ample time in which to arrange their stake book and solicit the patronage of desirable horsemen for the meeting. Just as soon as Rose gets back in America, a hurry-up program will be instituted and as dirt will be flying before he arrives, there seems to be nothing in prospect to prevent the consummation of all plans for a practical merging of interests of the Ascot and Baldwin Park people which seems to be the intention of those concerned although the Arcadia organization will be distinct in existence and operation and will have no further connection with the Los Angeles Jockey than the fact that many members of the latter will be members of the new jockey club.

It is easily within the possibilities of the occa sion for the proomters of the Baldwin Park track to build the track and erect the necessary buildings before the day for opening the winter meeting and this is the announced plans of the promoters. Their plans, while yet incomplete and forced into delay necessity of waiting for the arrival of George Rose, are so nearly complete that when arrives the final formalities of organization will be only an incidental matter and it is predicted by the spokesman for the promoters that all these formalities will be complete within ten days and that the new jockey club will be directing the work of building the track and erecting nec

GOOD SPORT AT YONKERS

SPIRITED CONTESTS AND CLOSE FIN-ISHES INTEREST A LARGE CROWD.

Cederstrome Beats Carthage a Head for the Day's Feature-Four Favorites Win-Double for Willie Shields.

New York, August 13.—There was some improvement in transportation facilities to Yonkers today and in consequence the attendance was larger than that of yesterday by fully three thousand. The public, too, was well repaid for any inconvenience it may have encountered in the journey out and back. The racing was spirited and the finishes close and exciting, and to the further liking of the people they were better able to locate the winners in advance than on the previous two days. Four of the six races were won by favorites. The first went to Linnepee, the second to Servile, the fourth to Colonel Bob and the last to Reidmoore, which made it a double for Willie Shields, who also owns Servile

The two races in which favorites were defeated were the Bronxville Handicap, which was the feature, third on the card and the fifth in which John Ferriss' Oak Grove scored a head victory over Woodwitch, with the favorite Escutcheon a fast coming third after being the last to leave the post. Escutcheon was best and would have won with an

The handicap produced the second defeat of Carthage at this track, the lightly weighted Ceder-strome getting up to beat him a head in the final stride of a thrilling finish. Polly Prim, coming back after her victory of yesterday, was third, a head in front of Lady Savoy, which tired after her great flight of speed over the first seven furlongs. Prince Ahmed, the winner of the opening day feature, cut little figure in the running today, retiring Jockeys Cherry and J. Hennessy were suspended for three days each for disobedience at the Monday and for the same offense jockey Bedell was fined $50.

T. P. Hayes has first call on the services of jockey J. Lee during this meeting.

W. C. Overton is expected at Yonkers from Latonia tonight with Tackle and Ada O. Walker.

MRS. BRADLEY TO CONDUCT FARM.

The dispersal sale of thoroughbred horses, belonging to the estate of the late Robert Bradley, took place July 31 at the Greenway Farm in Charles City County, Virginia. The sale was well attended by horsemen residing in that section of the country.

There were about fifty head sold, including stalbrood mares, three-year-olds, two-year-olds, yearlings and weanlings, and it was the consensus opinion among horsemen present that the sale on the whole was a very good one.

Blitzen (the Iron Horse) was bought in by Mrs. Bradley and will be kept in the stud at Greenway, where this grand old racehorse, winner of so many hard-fought races, will probably end his days. The stallions Wyalusing and Hampshire changed hands.

Among the brood mares sold were Virgie, the dam of Robert Waddell, winner of the American Derby; Panway, Florena Hubbard, Eminence, dam of Peter Paul; Broadway Belle, Sue B., dam of Bony Boy; Agnes Coulter, Allie Virge, Allie Violet and others. E. A. Sanders, Jr., of Richmond, was the largest purchaser. This gentleman, besides being a prominent business man in Richmond, is a large landowner in Charles City County. The dozen or more head of brood mares and colts sold to him will be placed on one of his farms.

Mrs. Bradley will continue to run the Greenway She has reserved quite a number of the choicest brood mares, and Aloha and Blitzen also will be kept in the stud.

BLOCKS PLANS FOR A SPUR.

New York, August 13.-A corporation known the New York Realty Owners' Company has acquired control of the property known as the Myer Finn estate, which extends from the Empire City track to a point in Wakefield.

This property was much sought after by James Butler, who had planned the construction to the Empire City track from the main line at Wakefield. The purchasers of the Finn estate have divided the property into building lots and the new subdivision has been christened Bel-

It was learned that after the purchase of the Finn estate Mr. Butler went to the former owners with an offer of $500 an acre over and above the amount paid by the present owners. As it was, the property on which Mr. Butler had proposed to build a private line was sold for the handsome sum of $300,000.

DO NOT WANT HOLTMAN?

A rumor comes from San Francisco that Jake Holtman will not be invited to do the starting this coming winter at the race track of the New California Jockey Club. "Holtman's work at the barrier last season was below par, and he got into disfavor with the public to such an extent that the officials do not consider him a drawing power," says the dispatch. "The honesty of the starter is not nor never has been questioned, but he simply fell into a rut from which he seemed to be unable to extricate himself. Just who will assist Dick Dwyer on the coast is not known."

T. L. B., Joliet, Ill. The deduction was all right it was equitably made. R. J. B., St. Louis, Mo. A mistake as to dis-unce does not invalidate a wager.

Sam R., Chicago. A parlay last Saturday on Tom McGrath to win and Carthage to show was a win-ner, being void as to Carthage because there was no show price against him.

Al S., Chicago. If you mean the second race at Saratoga August 8 the only interpretation to be placed on your badly worded bet is that you backed the Colt entry, of which Thistledale was a part and lost. If you had said Thistledale to go, or bet on Thistledale alone, it would have been a draw.

Winner—B. f, by The Roman—Rival (trained by J. C. Ferriss, Jr.).

Went to post at 4:31. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Oak Grove was off poorly, but soon ran into a contending position and, holding it to the stretch turn, dashed into a clear lead in the stretch, but tired finally and barely managed to last long enough. Woodwitch ran prominently from the start and finished wearing the winner down. Escutcheon was off poorly and trailed to the stretch, then came on with a tremendous rush, was best and would have won with a good rider up. Confessor finished fast. Mattle H. ran fairly well. Beldemo and Usury showed speed, but failed to stay.

Winner—Ch. e, by Pontiae—Madelaine (trained by T. Welsh).
Went to post at 3:34. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same.
Big Chief, probably a coming good one, forged into the lead quickly and held sway to the end, but finished doing his best and will be improved by the race. Polly Watts, a very promising filly, was outrun to the stretch and green, but came with a great rush when straightened away in the stretch and almost got up to win. Bellwether was a fast and game contender from the start, but tired in the closing struggle. Mystifier showed a good turn of speed and finished resolutely in a driving finish. Baroda closed a big gap into a close up fifth. Goshen Chief showed speed and ran in improving form. Imitator closed an immense gap from a bad start. Tenancy by Courtesy, Marengo and Winning Star showed speed, but were shuffled back early.
